Discover The Arc

The Arc New London County is a non-profit organization governed by its volunteer members. Founded in 1952 by families looking for opportunities for their children, today The Arc serves over 400 individuals of all ages, offering advocacy, employment opportunities, life skills training, recreation, residences and person-centered, community based services. In partnership with national, state, and local chapters, we are a powerful advocacy force for full inclusion of people with intellectual and developmental disabilities here in Southeastern Connecticut. ## How We Can Help. . .

The Arc New London County's Employment Transition Center:

- Seeks partnerships with employers so we can provide vocational assessments and real community work experience for people with intellectual and developmental disabilities ages 16 and older.
- Helps individuals acquire and maintain the employment skills they need to enter the world of work. We help with all aspects of a individual's employment, from the application and interview through vocational assessment and hands-on job trials.
- Builds partnerships with local businesses to customize job supports, situational assessments, employment training and work placement. Our goal is to help individuals find jobs of their choice and perform at a competitive level.
- Establishes relationships with local businesses to develop work assignments in integrated workplace settings. We provide guided job exploration for appropriate work opportunities. You can benefit from this program, too!
